Centennial Year

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF HELPING CHILDREN IN GEORGIA

Founded in 1927, The Circle for Children is a 100% volunteer-run organization dedicated to uplifting Georgia's youth through education, care, and opportunity. From our earliest fundraising efforts in support of Tallulah Falls School to today's partnerships with transformative organizations across the state, our mission remains steadfast.

Each year, we select organizations making transformative change in the lives of children. Our 2027 beneficiaries are City of Refuge, providing housing, education, and life skills to families in crisis, and the Linda Gross Memorial Scholarship Fund, which supports promising students in need throughout their college journey.
