VINTAGE to VOGUE

Shirley's Corner

Dear Circle Members,

Fall is almost here! The Circle for Children is busy welcoming all of our Circle membership to a new charity that we are supporting and encourage all to get involved with Wellspring Living. They offer a holistic approach to rehabilitate children who have been victims of sex trafficking. Wellspring offers many ways for you to volunteer and help these young girls along their journey of healing.

<http://wellspringliving.org/volunteer/>

In addition to volunteering, the Circle helps the children's charities we support by raising money at our annual gala. We need lots of volunteers to make the upcoming Vintage2Vogue gala a success. Please don't wait to be asked to volunteer. You know best what areas you can assist with. Email Ball Chair Linda Bagley today and ask how you can help Linda@4yes.com.

By getting involved you can make life so much more meaningful for the deserving and needy children. You'll have fun with your fellow Circle sisters doing great deeds. I honestly have to say some of my dearest friends are the friends from the Circle I have volunteered and served on committees with over the years.

Love to all,

Shirley Jones, President

NEW MEMBER PARTY

The new member party was held at the home of Chris and Jeff Cashman on October 1st. New Circle Members and their sponsors attended the evening soiree.

The highlight of the evening was a moving presentation from Mary Frances Bowling, Director of Wellspring Living about the work they do to rehabilitate the young victims of sex trafficking here in Georgia.

New members had a chance to meet Circle Executive Board members and learn more about the upcoming golf tournament and Vintage2Vogue gala.

Special thanks go out to the Cathy Haire and Patty Quinn for decorating and pulling together such a lovely event.

Membership Chairman, Janie Kissling remarked, “We’re so proud of our members and have a really interesting group this year. We have a lawyer, an events planner, a veterinarian pharmaceutical rep, and web and IT developer, a yoga teacher, a photographer, an artist and a magazine publisher! I want everyone to get to know these wonderful new members and get them plugged into their committees.”

Scholarship Update

Update on Circle Scholarship Recipient Ellen Besier

Ellen is a graduate of Tallulah Falls school where she was a scholarship student. Currently she is simultaneously completing her college senior year and starting her Doctor of Physical Therapy program at Mercer University in Atlanta. The Circle Scholarship Committee is very proud of all of Ellen's hard work and accomplishments!

Ellen recently commented on being a Circle Scholarship Recipient. "After successfully completing my time in Macon with a 4.0 GPA, I had my white coat ceremony. Three more years and I'll be Dr. Besier! Now I am four weeks into PT school, and I love it! It's difficult, but I am really enjoying my classes.

Thank you once again for this scholarship. It has provided me the opportunity to go to my dream school for my dream profession. The added stipend for books was a tremendous help this year too! It covered all but $50 for my books. I really appreciate everything the Circle for Children has done for me."

Junior Members Have Fun

Circle Junior Members gathered for dinner in September at 5 Church in Atlanta. They discussed different things they can do to help Wellspring Living. The Junior Members all brought items of clothing to the dinner to donate to the girls in need at Wellspring Living. They set a goal to have all Junior Members trained to volunteer at Wellspring Living by the end of October!
